

JAMES P. EDWARDS

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

James P. Edwards was born in Louisville, Kentucky. His early education was obtained at Princeton Collegiate Institute, Princeton, Kentucky, he going through the various departments of that institution. He later attended Centre College, Danville, Kentucky, from which he graduated in 1898. He studied law under Governor Knott, of Kentucky, and was admitted to the bar in Danville in April, 1898. He then located in Princeton, Kentucky, where he practiced his profession for a time, and on September 1, 1899, went to Louisville, where he has since been actively engaged in the practice of law, with offices in the Kentucky Title Building. He resides in Jefferson county, about ten miles out of Louisville. In 1902-1904 he served in the State Legislature, representing a Louisville district. James P. Edwards has ever been a conscientious Democrat, and has always supported the nominees of the Democratic party. His introduction into politics was as a delegate to the Goebel convention from Caldwell county, and for the past twelve years he has organized a portion of the Congressional District in which he resides, and has also been upon the "stump" each year in the interest of the Democratic party.

Upon the earnest solicitation of numerous friends he has announced himself as a candidate for the nomination of Lieutenant Governor, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Scores of Men Quitting Work.

About seventy-five Bulgarians, Austrians, Italians and Hungarians who had been working on the new extension of the L. & F. railroad from Jackson to Hazard, quit work and left for Chicago.

The men say that they had to walk from 37 to 40 miles in the mud to get to work and after working for two months had only $5 coming to them after taking out their bill at the commissary.

One of the men said that between 160 and 200 men quit when they found out what the conditions were, and that a large number started to walk from Jackson.

The work on the new extension is greatly hindered on account of the men quitting in large numbers and several of the contractors are offering $2 a day and board because they are afraid they cannot get enough men to finish the contract in time.

For Sprains

"Gave Me Instant Relief"

"I fell and sprained my arm and was in terrible pain. I could not use my hand or arm without intense suffering until a neighbor told me to use Sloan's Liniment. The first application gave me instant relief and I can now use my arm as well as ever."—Mrs. H. B. SPRINGER, 921 Flora St., Elizabeth, N. J.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is an excellent antiseptic and germ killer—heals cuts, burns, wounds, and contusions, and will draw the poison from sting of poisonous insects.

25c., 50c. and $1.00

Sloan's book on horses, cattle, sheep and poultry sent free. Address Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston, Mass., U. S. A.

Newspaper Merger.

The consolidation of the Kentucky State Journal and the Frankfort News became effective last week, the News absorbing its rival. The two papers will be published from the plant of the Frankfort News, all of the equipment of the State Journal being moved into the building now occupied by the News. The paper will be known as the Frankfort News-Journal, and will be an afternoon paper with a late morning edition.

James W. Newman, one of the owners of the Journal, will be connected with the News-Journal and will have charge of the work done for the State under the contract for first-class printing and also for the publication of the advance sheets of the Court of Appeals and the Kentucky decisions. Ex-Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, who was editor of the State Journal, will retire from newspaper work and devote his entire time to the practice of law.

NEW DEPARTURE.

Selling Medicines at Half Price Under Guarantee of Cure.

After two months of remarkable sales, W. S. Lloyd, the enterprising druggist, says that his plan of selling at half price the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and guaranteeing to refund the money if it does not cure, has been the greatest success he has ever known.

Anyone suffering with dyspepsia, constipation, liver troubles, headaches, dizziness, coated tongue or the general tired feeling, caused by inactive liver and bowels or disordered digestion, should take advantage of W. S. Lloyd's new departure and buy a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price, with his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. 32-34

Harry K. Thaw's Last Hope Gone.

Harry K. Thaw's appeal from the decision of the Appellate Court adverse to his contention that he is being illegally detained in the State Hospital for the insane at Matteawan, has been dismissed by the Court of Appeals. This practically sweeps away his last hope for release.

Farmers and Good Roads.

A Hopkinsville County farmer tells the Madisonville Hustler that he would be willing to pay as much as $20 or $30 a year for good roads. He feels that improved thoroughfares would be worth more than that to him—and they would. He rightly says that "the farmers are the ones that should be the most active in pressing the matter because they would reap the benefits."

Good roads, it is true, would benefit the farmer immensely, but the benefits do not stop with any one class. Under a systematic plan of improvement there are very few farmers who would have to pay as much as $20 or $30 a year, but where is there a sensible farmer living on a poorly maintained dirt road, who cannot figure out that he is losing $20 or $30 a year, or more by reason of the lack of good roads? It is a simple proposition in addition which does not require the services of a mathematical expert? It can be demonstrated with a piece of charcoal on the barn door or with the stub of a pencil on a cypress shingle.

The farmer more than anybody else, perhaps, needs good roads. Doubtless he loses more money than anyone by reason of bad roads, but he has no monopoly in that loss. The business man at the country town loses, whether he be merchant, banker, butcher, baker or candlestick maker. Everybody pays in some way a tax for bad roads in a county where there is indifference to improvement. In the nature of things the farmer pays the heft of it and he ought to be right at the forefront of every movement for highway betterment.

For Sale.

I have 140 acres of land for sale as a whole or will divide as follows: 50 acres with house and other improvements, or 50 acres with only tenement house on same or 40 acres without any improvements. Has good orchard, never failing spring and good stock pond on same.

Call and see me at Mt. Sterling, or on Dr. J. B. Spratt at Camargo. 29-4t Walter H. Wright.

Maude—It's all decided. George and I are to be married next July. Clara—That's strange. He and I are to be married in April.

Itching, bleeding, protruding or blind piles yield to Doan's Ointment. Chronic cases soon relieved, finally cured. Druggists all sell it. Im.

The thirst for notoriety is responsible for most of the rows. Do you care particularly for notoriety? Would you care to have a great crowd meet you every time you visited a strange town? I don't believe I would care for it.

For His Sake

"My husband begged me to take Cardui," writes Mattie L. Bishop, of Waverly, Va., "and for his sake I agreed to try it. Before I had taken 1 bottle, I felt better. Before taking Cardui I suffered miserably every month and had to go to bed until it wore off, but now I am all right."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

You know Cardui will help you, because it has helped others who were in the same fix as you. It is not only a medicine for sick women, but a tonic for weak women. Being made from mild, gentle, vegetable ingredients, it is perfectly harmless and has no bad after-effects. Cardui can be relied upon to help you. Try it today. At all druggists.
